Newsletter Week 7, Term 2.

PATHS Feeling of the WEEK:

Being confused happens when we aren't sure what to think, or what to do.

Confused

A PATHS "Star of the Day" is chosen each day at Warlawurru School. Please ask your child if they were chosen today.

Shaylene and Ashley enjoyed Tuesdays Bush Trip. How many pieces of damper did they have each?

Dear Parents and Families, many important notices are in this newsletter. Please read them and continue to be active in the life of our great little school.

School Photos

Children will today bring home envelopes for ordering school photos. If you wish to order photos, please choose a package under YOUR ORDER, and put the money or Credit Card details in the envelope and return it sealed to school. There are some different envelopes for family photos which you can collect from Dean if you wish. Photo Day is on Thursday June 21st, in two weeks' time.

RIGHT: Jai and Abraham role-playing a Gospel story in RE.

Jesus tells the little children to come to him.
(Mark 10:14)

Middle Primary students the ways Jesus showed that people were special. After reading a Gospel story about Jesus, students acted out the story in three steps, called 'freezes'. We took photos and wrote about each one. Jai is the apostle who told the children to go away and not to bother Jesus. Abraham is Jesus, ready to scold the apostle. Kano and Andrew are the little children who came to see Jesus.

Our school enrolment is 62 students. However, 7 students are currently visiting other communities and we are struggling to get family support for 4 other students to attend regularly. We have also had 4 students attend school who are just visiting our school for a short time. Visiting students from other Catholic schools are welcome, but they must attend school every day while they are here in Halls Creek.

This Sunday is the Feast of Corpus Christi. Mass will be celebrated at St Mary's at 5.00pm.

“Take it,” he said, “This is my body.”

Then he took a cup, gave thanks to God, and handed it to them; and they all drank from it. Jesus said,

“This is my blood which is poured out for many, my blood which seals God's covenant.” Mark 14: 22-24
