NEWSLETTER Term 4, Week 3, 2012

Dear Parents and Families,

We have had many new students enrolled lately, and it's great to see they are coming to school every day. Belonging to a school doesn't just mean having your name on a list. It doesn't mean having a grandparent who used to work here. It means being here each day and being a part of what happens each day. There are many examples of families who only send their children to school when they feel pressured to do so, or when they need a break from the kids. Fortunately, we have plenty of others who understand the importance of daily school attendance, and continue to help their children attend every day. Thanks once again to those families. You are the backbone of our school!

PATHS Value of the WEEK: Sincerity

ōSincerityö = being open and truthful.

A PATHS "Kid of the Day" is chosen each day at Warlawurru School. Please ask your child if they were chosen today.

Photo Night TONIGHT!

Senior and Middle Primary students and their teachers will present a Photo Night TONIGHT at 5.30pm at the school. Photos and videos from the 2012 Broome Camp will be shown. Some food and drinks will be on sale to help raise funds for next year's camp. Entry will be free, to say thank you to parents and families who helped the students get to Camp this year. A bus run will be provided from 4.30pm for children and families to come. Buses will do a return run after the event. All welcome!

SP visits HC Police

Nobody had to dial triple 000, but there were plenty of officers in attendance as Senior Primary students visited Halls Creek Police Station today. Students were taken on a tour and were particularly interested in the protective equipment and weapons the police use. Thanks to Mr Martin and HC Police.
