NEWSLETTER Week 11, Term 2, 2010

Dear Parents and Families, This is our last newsletter for the term. I take this chance to wish everyone a safe and happy holiday. Holiday times are often danger times for children who might be bored at home and looking for adventure. I ask all families to look out for children during these two weeks, so we can all return to school happy and healthy on Tuesday July 20th.

NAIDOC Mass and First Communion!

Last Friday Fr Denis celebrated Mass for NAIDOC Week. Four students from Warlawurru Catholic School made their First Communion on the day. In the photos below you can see the Senior students who performed a beautiful dance to the song "Thy Word" before the Gospel. Fr Denis and Ms Rosanne presented certificates to Coburn, Markelle, Richelle and Zhianne on their First Communion Day. Thanks to some parents and community members who attended.

HELP!

Before a child is seriously hurt, or worse, I ask the parents and adults at Red Hill Community to stop children from the community playing dangerously at school on the weekends. In the last two weeks, a skylight has been broken, an air-conditioner damaged and children have run across rooves. I have visited Red Hill to ask for this to stop before a child gets hurt. Police will also be told.

This week Miss Rosanne led the school in prayer. The Gospel comes from St Luke and tells of Jesus sending out the disciples to work amongst the people. This is one part of what we know as "mission". Jesus calls all of us to do his work, and each person has a part to play. What's yours?

The Mistake!

Each week a mistake will be carefully hidden in the newsletter. Last week Shania found that an extra "e" had been included in the word "succeed". Look out for this week's mistake— the last for this term!

School Sports

Congratulations to GREEN and captains Zhianne and Winston on leading their team to victory in our school Athletics Carnival on Tuesday. There were many winners on the day, including every child who tried their best and enjoyed the sports.

ABOVE: Age champions with their trophies.

BELOW: Spectators Jodie, Anton and Molly enjoyed the sports .

UPCOMING EVENTS: Please read these and keep up-to-date with events in our school.

TOMORROW -a Bush Trip to Banjo Bore. Children will be leaving from school at about 8.15am. Any parents wishing to come can be collected after by Chrissy, or make your way by car to Banjo Bore.

Ongoing: Extended School Day–Mondays (Junior students) Thursdays (Senior students)

End of Term: School finishes for staff and students at 2.00pm on Friday July 2nd.

School resumes for staff on Monday July 19th and for

I ask God's blessings on our school community, and especially on the teachers and assistants for a wonderful term's work.
