STRAIGHT TALK KIMBERLEY REGIONAL GATHERING 9–11 OCTOBER 2017

Are you an Aboriginal woman from the Kimberley Region? Are you working towards social justice and self-determination for Aboriginal people?

Straight Talk brings women together to learn more about political processes and the political system.

Straight Talk provides the opportunity to exchange ideas, knowledge and experience and work together to develop strategies to make change happen. We will cover travel, accommodation, meals and registration costs.

Applications for Straight Talk are now open.
Applications close Monday 28 August.

How to apply?

To get an application form, contact Attika Edgar at Aarnja:
www.aarnja.org.au • admin@aarnja.org.au • 08 9192 2361 •
0499 332 020 • 24 Clementson St, Broome, WA

ARE YOU BUSHFIRE READY?

It's a team effort. Go to emergency.wa.gov.au

As part of their recently awarded NDRP grant, the WA Council of Social Service will be travelling to the Kimberley and the Pilbara delivering training to assist community organisations in building their resilience in responding to and recovering from natural disasters.

The one-day workshops will be facilitated by WACOSS Manager Projects and Business Development, Stuart Reid. Can you please contact Stuart to discuss local arrangements for delivery of the workshops in Broome, Fitzroy, Kununurra, Karratha, Newman and Hedland.

Workshops are planned for the first three weeks in September but at this stage, the only date locked in is for Broome on 4 September.

Stuart can be contacted at WACOSS on 9420 7222 or mobile 0439 098 386. His email is stuart@wacoss.org.au

The training is in the use of an online resource developed by the Australian Council of Social Service which allows organisations to benchmark their current capacities and resilience, identify areas for improvement and then works through a 'Six Steps to Resilience' tool.

The project is supported by a Natural Disasters Resilience Program Grant so there will be minimal cost to participants. WACOSS is proposing to charge $25 per participant to offset local costs and ensure buy-in from potential participating organisations. Stuart has indicated that local governments are welcome to participate.

Any assistance you can provide to Stuart in getting the message out to your networks in the community sector would be greatly appreciated.

Thanks & regards
