NEWSLETTER Term 4, Week 4, 2012

Dear Parents and Families,

As advertised in recent newsletters, this Friday and next Monday (November 9th and 12th) are Pupil-Free days at Warlawurru. Friday is a Catholic Day for staff, in recognition of extra duties sometimes required of staff in Catholic schools. On Monday staff will meet at school to review our Literacy and Numeracy Plans, to learn more about reading assessment and how to use data better, and to choose reading resources for 2013. CEO Broome School Consultant Janenell Kennedy will be assisting our work. School resumes for students on Tuesday November 13th.

PATHS Value of the WEEK: Tolerance ōToleranceö= accept yourself and others as they are.

A PATHS “Kid of the Day” is chosen each day at Warlawurru School. Please ask your child if they were chosen today.

We have been very fortunate to obtain the services of Rosie Vranic (Miss Rosie) to implement Reading Recovery at our school next year. Miss Rosie will be working at Ringer Soak in terms 1 and 2, and at Warlawurru in terms 3 and 4. Reading Recovery is an intensive reading programme for students in Years 1 and 2 who have not yet grasped the skills required to read. Four students will be chosen to access the programme, and families will be asked to support it through ensuring excellent attendance.

Solar Eclipse Warning!

Early in the morning next Wednesday there will be a Solar Eclipse. Do not look at the sun. It can cause eye damage that can last your whole life. Please don't let kids look at the sun.

WARNING !!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
Medical specialists advise against any direct viewing of the eclipse.

There are many new faces in our Wednesday 3 year-old Kindy class as more families recognise the importance of an early and solid start to formal education.

Welcome to Bethany, Monesha and Tina. They join our 4 year-old Kindies for a morning of fun learning activities with Miss Katherine and Miss Anansa. Four year-old Kindy is held each morning between 7.45 and 10.45am. Enrol now for 2013.
